

Study on Youth Access to Mental Health Services

AGREEMENT AND CONSENT TO PUBLIC USE OF ORIGINAL WORK

Project: Implementation of youth mental health services within the ACCESS Open Minds network

As part of your participation in the project, you created original artistic work (photography, maps, images, ...) which could be used to communicate the various findings of this study to a larger audience.

Ownership of the work / copyright

The photos, images, illustrations, texts and other original work created during this study remain the sole property of their creator/author.

Use of the work

The project's research team may or may not use the work, in whole or in part, for a period of time that is considered useful for the project by the principal investigator. For example, your work may be used to create an art exhibit. It might also be published online by ACCESS Open Minds (ACCESS-OM website, social media, ...).

Editing

The project's research team also reserves the right to retouch the work or make corrections to improve the quality, by adjusting visual modalities, correcting typos and spelling/grammatical errors, etc. However, the project's research team pledges not to alter the work in such a way that it is misrepresented or loses its essence.

Consent

Check all the choices that you consent to:
